OnlyBurger

The patriarch of Durham's famous food truck scene has gained fans one perfect burger at a time. They still have truck, will travel, but owners Brian Bottger and Tom Ferguson also recently added a brick-and-mortar location on Shannon Road. John Pelphey, co-owner of LabourLove Gallery at Golden Belt, has gotten to know OnlyBurger well during their regular stops at Golden Belt's Third Fridays. "The patrons come into the gallery happy and full. Brian and Tom really know how to run a well-oiled machine. I always get the special no matter what it is, and it's always amazing. I had the roast beef sliders recently, and it blew my mind. They need to make that thing permanent. It could be its own food truck."

★ Honorable Mentions: Tyler's Taproom and King's Sandwich Shop
