Mobile burgers take root in Durham

Up and running: Following months of anticipation, Only Burger's restaurant location finally opened quietly on Sunday, delighting those customers longing for stationary version of the roaming burger truck.

Co-owner Brian Bottger said they held a soft opening to ease the newly hired crew into the routine. The credit card machine was down earlier this week, but since then has been fixed. And as word has gotten out about the opening, customers have streamed steadily into the restaurant.

"It was nothing crazy, but it was enough to keep us on our toes," Bottger said.

Located at 3710 Shannon Road in the Hope Valley Square shopping center, the restaurant has 25 seats and some outdoor seating. The menu is exactly the same as the truck's regular menu, but Bottger said onion rings and daily specials might be added starting next week, including the fried green tomato burger and the bacon and bleu cheese burger.

Hours are 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday to Saturday, 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Sunday.

And for those customers who prefer to hunt down the Only Burger truck, the mobile unit of the business is still up and running.
